

Opportunities not to miss for Summer 2013

European Study Center - Heidelberg, Germany

The European Study Center offer students and faculty opportunities to study/teach abroad for one or two summer sessions in Heidelberg, Germany. Heidelberg is an international center for science and economics, but also a very historic and romantic city filled with philosophers and poets. Coursework combines lectures and discussions with a variety of on-site visits to European political and economic institutions, German and multinational corporations, and historical and cultural points of interest.

Summer Term I: May 13-June 15, 2013

Summer Term II: June 28- July 27, 2013

Program Cost: $4,950 for one term and $8,695 for both terms.

For more details or to apply, please visit: <http://bit.ly/12rm9aN>

Summer session for Visiting Students at the University of Virginia

Each summer, over 400 courses are offered by some of the University's most talented faculty to more than 4,000 students. A wide range of classes is offered by the School of Architecture, College of Arts & Sciences, McIntire School of Commerce, School of Engineering & Applied Science, Curry School of Education and School of Nursing. A number of special programs such as the Summer Language Institute and the Morven Institute complement these course offerings. Visiting students are invited to participate alongside University of Virginia students in this unique academic experience. For more details or to apply, please visit: <http://bit.ly/bRn3Mk>

Di Wang's experience in AUS and UAE

Di Wang is an exchange student from University of Victoria. She left Canada at the end of August to start her new life. She talks about her first impressions, free time in the UAE, and her Arabic course. "The women wearing Abaya look so beautiful and there is sand everywhere. I travelled to Sharjah and Dubai during Orientation Week and then I've just been familiarizing myself with the new transportation system, how to get groceries and campus life. I feel like it's going to be impossible to pronounce some of the (Arabic) letters of the alphabet correctly, but the local students in my other classes are always willing to help." We wish you best of luck and hope you achieve the most outcome of your study abroad experience here at AUS and UAE. To read more about Di's experience visit: <http://bit.ly/12fbrVB>

Exchange students celebrating UAE national day

Don't miss your last chance to study abroad. Deadline for applications for Fall 2013 through ISEP is January 15, 2013.

Students are welcome to stop by MG43 or call 06 515 4027 to speak with a member of our staff. Information about and applications for all of our programs can be found on our website: www.aus.edu/ixo

Farewell to Anna Ray

Anna Ray has been involved with International Exchange Office from the very beginning, and has made a huge contribution to every aspect of the office's work program. Her last day of work was December 12, as she now plans to attend graduate school overseas. Needless to say, she will be very sorely missed.