

Institute for American Universities Resident Fellows Program

The Institute for American Universities (IAU), with academic year, semester, summer and faculty-led study abroad programs in Aix-en-Provence, France is pleased to introduce its Resident Fellows Program, designed for visiting professors on sabbatical leave from their home institutions.

During the semester the Fellow can choose to participate in the IAU program of their choice, promote intellectual and cultural exchange through a series of public lectures in their field of expertise, conduct smaller seminars and discussions with students and faculty and develop their own research. They will have full access to all IAU resources including library, classrooms, WIFI and the Resident Fellow apartment in Aix.

Interested faculty may complete the IAU Resident Fellows Application at www.iaufrance.org/Programs/Resident-Fellow/. Applications for the fall 2012 semester should be submitted by June 26, 2012 with the Resident Fellow announced by June 30, 2012. Applications for the spring 2013 semester should be submitted by October 15, 2012.

Any questions can be directed to Professor Alan Roberts, Director of IAU's Marchutz School of Fine Arts and Chair of the Resident Fellows selection committee, at Alan.Roberts@iaufrance.org.

Abdulaziz Alneaimi at Clarion University's first Undergraduate Economics Colloquium

Abdulaziz Alneaimi, AUS finance student who spent Spring 2012 studying abroad at Clarion University of Pennsylvania in America, gave a presentation at Clarion University on April 18, 2012 about "Portfolio Optimization for Abu Dhabi Investment Authority". We congratulate Abdulaziz for his achievement and wish him great success in his future.

London Welcomes Students of Theatre

The capital of world theatre offers students of theatre and dance a life changing study tour experience for Spring Break 2013. Intensive study programs for undergrad and graduate students of theatre, dance and the performing arts. Features include in-depth seminars, interactive workshops and special backstage tours for all disciplines. Programs include visits to some of Europe's finest theatrical and musical institutions from schools to studios and theatres. Themes include improvisation, history of ancient and medieval theatre, modern performing arts, community and professional theatre. There are several programs such as: London Theatrical Studies (8 days); Costume Design (8 days); Dance & Performing Arts (7 days); and Russian Theatre Study (8 days). For more information about programs please visit: http://www.selecttravelstudy.com/?utm_source=Theatre+Educators+May+2012&utm_campaign=Theatre+Feb+2012&utm_medium=email and to get started on your own program- http://www.selecttravelstudy.com/request-proposal.html?utm_source=Theatre+Educators+May+2012&utm_campaign=Theatre+Feb+2012&utm_medium=email

Welcome Summer 2012 visiting students

The office is happy to welcome more than 60 visiting students for this summer. Please join us in welcoming our new visiting students who are coming from different universities across the UAE and from various countries, mostly from the United States, Qatar, Canada, UK, and Egypt. We hope they achieve what they came for and we wish them a great summer enjoying the UAE culture.

International internship insurance policy

AUS students who are planning to take their internship abroad are required to have international travel and health insurance coverage during their stay abroad. Students can buy their insurance from any registered insurance company, or they can purchase a policy through AUS by providing a photocopy of their passport and their UAE residency to the Office of International Exchange Programs. For more information, please visit our office at MG 43.

Reminder! ISEP applications' deadline for Spring 2013 is August 1, 2012