- Bachelor of Arts in Economics

- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Economics

BE AN EXPERT.

AUS economics alum Yousef Shrouf is an advisor on business mergers and acquisitions, helping clients make strategic business decisions based on solid market and financial analysis.

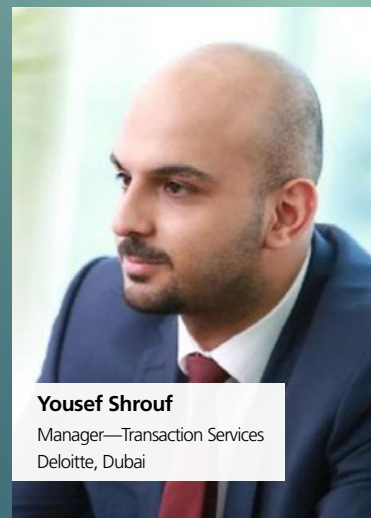

Recognized by the International Honors Society and a member of various AUS sports teams, Yousef made the most of his AUS experience.

After graduation, he started working with global consulting firm Deloitte in Dubai. Now a manager, Yousef uses his economics expertise to advise and inform the strategic direction of UAE businesses—and he also leads the company's sports program.

Become a #proud_AUSeR like Yousef.

At AUS I enjoyed the complete student experience. In the classroom, the economics professors were exceptional, teaching me exactly what I needed to know to start a successful career. And outside of the classroom, I had many opportunities to explore other interests and feel part of the wider AUS community.
