Our internationally renowned and recognized graduate programs have helped ambitious professionals achieve success in public and private organizations, or embark on entrepreneurial ventures, across the region and abroad.

Discover why AUS is a first-choice for talented and determined individuals looking to make their mark.

Assistantships and work-study opportunities

We offer assistantships and work-study options for graduate students to help them finance their education. All graduate students are encouraged to apply for these opportunities.

Hands-on research opportunities

Our graduate students work in world-class laboratories and beautiful break-out spaces. Students can also involve themselves in the cutting-edge research of faculty, many of whom are leading groundbreaking research.

Flexible study arrangements

AUS understands that many of its graduate students have competing demands on their time, with busy careers and personal responsibilities. We offer flexible learning options, including part-time study and evening and weekend classes.

A tradition of alumni achievement

Alumni of our graduate programs occupy senior positions in some of the UAE's and world's best-known and most widely respected organizations. Many have gone on to pursue further study at the world's most prestigious universities, including Oxford, MIT, Cambridge, UC Berkeley, Harvard and others.
